See a glossary of PLACE NAMES after the lists of households

Columns in the Lists of Households

1. Surname of husband or male individual. (In the rare cases of a single woman alone, her names are in cols. 1 & 2.) Also, "dit" indicates a nickname.
2. His given name, with his code number in Stephen A. White's Dictionnaire généalogique des familles acadiennes (DGFA); & in parentheses, his father, ditto.
3. Surname of wife. (In the rare cases of a single woman alone, her subsequent husband might be named here.)
4. Her given name; and in parentheses, her father's given name & his code # in White's DGFA. (Note: "Isabelle" and "Élisabeth" were interchangeable.)
5. Date and place of marriage if known. The letter "c" (for "circa") indicates an estimate of the year. Many place names had multiple spellings, in both English & French. Some of those are provided in the glossary of "Places", below. In all cases, mention of a 2nd or 3rd marriage refers to the man; instances of a woman's remarriage are not entered in this table
6. Place of origin of the household (or of the man), before displacement.
7. Number of persons in the household in the 1754/55 census of Beaubassin & of the Memramcook, Petitcodiac, & Shepody River communities. A zero means the household was not counted in that census.
8. Number of persons in the household in Bazagier's census at Restigouche in October 1760. (Zero indicates not included.)
9. Where the household lived as refugees; from census by Pierre du Calvet July-Aug. 1761.
10. Number of persons in the household in Pierre du Calvet's census of 1761. (Zero indicates not included.)
11. Ditto in MacKenzie's count of November 1761.
12. Ditto in the lists of Acadian prisoners at Fort Edward in 1761 & 1762.
13. Place of imprisonment in the summer of 1763, except where a different date is shown with the place name. Note: n.d. = no date (unknown date).
14. Number of persons in the household according to lists of prisoners at Fort Beauséjour, Annapolis Royal (Port Royal), & Halifax in summer 1763.
15. Place(s) where household members eventually settled. (Places listed are not necessarily in chronological sequence of migration. Also, sometimes the household dispersed to two or more locales.)

PLACES

- LA State of Louisiana
- NB Province of New Brunswick
- NS Province of Nova Scotia
- PE Province of Prince Edward Island
- QC Province of Québec province (called "Canada" in colonial times)

- Ancienne-Lorette QC Now a suburb of Québec City, 13 km from centre of the old city. Inland from Sainte-Foy & Cap Rouge, & adjacent to Lesage Airport.
- Anse-des-Belliveau NS English: Belliveaus Cove. See Baie-Sainte-Marie.
- Arichat NS The main village of several on Isle Madame, Richmond County, in SE Cape Breton Island & on the north side of Chedabucto Bay.
- Ascension LA Ascension Parish extends across the Mississippi, downriver from Baton Rouge. Along with St. James Parish, which adjoins it on the downriver end, it formed "Acadia Parish" until 1807. The two parishes have a historical moniker of "The Acadian Coast" & were a major settlement zone for Acadian exiles in the 18th century. See Saint-Jacques-de-Cabahannocer, below.
- Attakapas LA In the 1760s, it was a district of the Louisiana colony, centered on present-day St. Martinville in the central Gulf coast area. (St. Martinville – on the Bayou Teche, 20 km SE of Lafayette – is considered today a key centre of Cajun heritage, & is the seat of the present St. Martin Parish [county]). The Attakapas area was the main area of settlement of the Acadians of the Broussard "Beausoleil" expedition, arriving in 1765, and attracted many of the Acadian exiles from France in the 1780s. In the early 1800s it merged with the Opelousas district to form the parish (county) of Attakapas (later subdivided into several parishes).
- Aulac NB The Aulac River, on the Isthmus of Chignecto (joining NS to NB), drains into Cumberland Basin, an arm of the Bay of Fundy. Three pre-Expulsion settlements formed a triangle along the river. On the SE side was Le Lac or Aulac, roughly 8 km up the present Rte. 16 (Trans-Canada H'way toward PE Island) from the site now called Aulac. On the opposite side of the river, west of the Aulac community across the marsh, was the much smaller La Coupe, while a little further upriver & due north of Aulac was tiny Jolicoeur.
- Baie-des-Ouines NB Now called Baie-du-Vin (French) & Bay du Vin (English). A rural community on the east coast at the mouth of the Bay du Vin River, on the south shore of the inner part of Miramichi Bay.
- Baie-Egmont PE English: Egmont Bay. A rural community in the predominantly Acadian "Evangeline" region of Prince County, along the shores of the Northumberland Strait. Site of the Catholic parish church of St-Philippe-et-St-Jacques.
- Baie-Sainte-Marie NS English: St. Mary's Bay. The bay parallels the Bay of Fundy, in Digby County, at the southwestern corner of the province. It is formed by a peninsula (Digby Neck) paralleling the mainland, which continues as Long Island and then Brier Island. The western half of the mainland side of the bay is a major area of post-Expulsion Acadian settlement, forming the Municipality of Clare. From the NE to the SW, it includes communities of Anse-des-Belliveau (Belliveaus Cove), Grosses-Coques, Pointe-de-l'Église (Church Point), Comeauville, Saulnierville, Meteghan, Saint-Alphonse-de-Clare (formerly Chéticamp-de-Clare), & others.
- Baie-Verte NB A small community on the bay of the same name in the extreme SE of the province, and a pre-Expulsion Acadian settlement. Historically important as a port on the Isthmus of Chignecto. Travelers and commercial traders saved days of difficult sailing around Nova Scotia, by crossing the isthmus via river and short land portages, between the Bay of Fundy & the Northumberland Strait. For the Acadians & French, it was a vital link to Québec, Île Saint-Jean, & Port Royal.

Barachois NB	An area of rural settlement on the SE shore of NB, just east of Shédiac & 35 km NE of Moncton; within the present district of Beaubassin East in Westmoreland County.
Beaubassin NS &amp; NB	In this appendix, “Beaubassin” typically refers specifically to the pre-Expulsion hamlets straddling the Missiguash River, which marks the present provincial boundary between NB and NS. The same name also used to refer to the broader area of Acadian population on and near the Isthmus of Chignecto, extending from well south of Amherst NS, in the east, to Sackville NB & beyond, in the west.
Beaumont NB	The southern tip of Memramcook , where the Memramcook and Petitcodiac Rivers converge as they empty into Shepody Bay. Historically, it included a Mi'kmaw community.
Bécancour QC	A small town on a river of the same name, on the south side of the St. Lawrence, opposite Trois-Rivières. It is now part of an amalgamated town (also called Bécancour), which includes the nearby small town of Saint-Grégoire (see below).
Belle-Île-en-Mer (France)	An island including four towns & many villages & hamlets, off the south coast of Brittany . Site of an effort to resettle Acadian exiles, who moved there in 1765. Many Acadians later abandoned the attempt, but descendants of others live there today.
Bonaventure QC	A small town in the Gaspésie region, at the mouth of a river of the same name, on the north shore of the Bay of Chaleurs (Baie-des-Chaleurs). European settlement dates from Acadian refugees in 1760. The population is over 90% francophone. Also the name of the present county, which contains several other communities listed in this glossary.
Bordeaux (France)	A major city in SW France, on the Garonne River near the Atlantic coast.
Bouctouche NB	A town at the mouth of a river with the same name, on the east coast of Kent County, on the Northumberland Strait, 56 km NE of Moncton.
BSM	See Baie-Sainte-Marie.
Cabahannocer LA	See Saint-Jacques-de-Cabahannocer.
Cacouna QC	A village on the south bank of the St. Lawrence, 12 km downriver from Rivière-du-Loup (with which it is now amalgamated). Settled by Acadian refugees in the aftermath of the Expulsion.
Cap-Pelé NB	Formerly Tidiche . A rural area on the extreme SE coast of the province, on the Northumberland Strait, 50 km east of Moncton
Cap-Tourmentin NB	English: Cape Tormentine . A small community in the extreme SE of the province, at the point closest to PE. Formerly a ferry terminus, the site is the mainland end of the Confederation Bridge, which opened in 1997.
Caraquet NB	On the south shore of the Bay of Chaleurs toward its mouth, in the NE part of the province. On the “Acadian Peninsula.” A centre of Acadian culture today. The Île-de-Caraquet is a small island, now uninhabited, close to shore.
Cascapédia QC	See Bonaventure, above. Cascapédia, at the mouth of the river of the same name, is the westernmost community of the Bonaventure regional municipality.
Chambly QC	A town on the Richelieu River, about 30 km ESE of Montréal, and about 80 km up from the mouth of the Richelieu at Sorel.
Champlain QC	A village along the north bank of the St. Lawrence, about 24 km downriver (NE) from the centre of Trois-Rivières.
Chédabouctou NS	English: Chedabucto . Now Guysborough village, at the head of Chedabucto Bay, on the NE mainland of the province.
Cherbourg (France)	In France; a major port on the north coast of Lower Normandy , on the English Channel.
Chéticamp NS	Founded post-Expulsion, on the NW shore of Cape Breton Island. Today it remains a centre of Acadian culture and language.

Chéticamp-de-Clare NS	Renamed Saint-Alphonse-de-Clare . See Baie-Sainte-Marie.
Chezzetcook NS	A group of rural villages on the Eastern Shore, about 35 km east of downtown Halifax.
Chimougoni NB	English: Shemogue. A rural coastal community in the SE of the province, about 55 km east of Moncton & Dieppe.
Chipoudie NB	English: Shepody . A series of hamlets along the Shepody River, at the north shore of Shepody Bay (which leads into Chignecto Bay & the Bay of Fundy), on the western side of the Petitcodiac River.
Cobequid NS	Cobequid Bay is the eastern extension of the Minas Basin, which opens in turn into the Bay of Fundy. Cobequid Bay is fed by the Shubenacadie & Salmon rivers, & several lesser rivers. The north & south shores of the bay, & the salt marshes of the estuaries, were major sites of pre-Expulsion Acadian settlement. The largest present-day town is Truro (with adjacent Bible Hill ), on the Salmon River.
Cocagne NB	A rural village on the SE coast of the province, across the Northumberland Strait from PE Island, 38 km NNE of Moncton & Dieppe.
Côte-Gelée LA	Now called Broussard . A town just south of Lafayette.
Deschambault QC	A village on the northern bank of the St. Lawrence, 65 km upriver (SW) from the historic centre of Québec City.
Dieppe NB	Now the largest Acadian community in Canada. A mainly francophone city, part of metro Moncton , on the Petitcodiac River.
Fort Beauséjour NB	A fort built by the French, 1750, on the present NB side of the Missaguash River on the Isthmus of Chignecto. The French saw that river as the boundary between their territory & British NS. It had been settled by Acadians for many decades before that. During the disruptions of the first half of the 1750s, many more Acadians of the Beaubassin area clustered in that vicinity. The British captured the fort in 1755, renamed it Ft. Cumberland , & began the Expulsion there.
Fort Dauphin (Haiti)	Now called Fort-Liberté . A town on the north coast of Haiti, very close to the border of the Dominican Republic. Haiti was the French colony of Saint-Domingue, with a slavery-based plantation economy.
Fort Edward NS	A fort built by the British, 1750, at Pisiquid (now Windsor NS ) to control Acadians & Mi'kmaq. One of the sites where former refugees were imprisoned during later years of the Acadian Expulsion campaign.
Gaspereau	English: Gaspereau . A pre-Expulsion Acadian settlement on the Gaspereau River, very near Grand-Pré in present-day Nova Scotia.
Gentilly QC	A village on the south bank of the St. Lawrence, about 14 km downriver (NE) from Bécancour (see latter, above), & now part of that city.
Georgia (USA)	Southernmost of the 13 Colonies (present USA). It was a new colony where British settlement began in 1732. When the Acadian exiles arrived, settlement was largely confined to the Savannah River area.
Grande-Digue NB	A rural community in Kent County, in the SE of the province, on the north side of Shédiac Bay; 6 km SE of Cocagne, 12 km north of Shédiac, & 35 km NE of Moncton.
Grand-Pré NS	This pre-Expulsion colonial name is still used. It was a major cluster of pre-Expulsion Acadian hamlets, also called Les Mines, anglicized as Minas. On the SW shore of the Minas Basin, at the mouths of the three rivers now called the Cornwallis, the Gaspereau, & the Avon.
Grand-Chipagan NB	This was the present site of Bas-Caraquet , not to be confused with the present town of Shippagan. Bas-Caraquet is on the south side of the Bay of Chaleurs, about 10 km east of Caraquet on the north coast of the "Acadian Peninsula". It lies NW of Shippagan, perhaps 15 km by boat, but 35 by road.

Grosses-Coques NS	See Baie-Sainte-Marie.
Halifax NS	Founded by the British in 1749 as the new capital of NS, at the site of the Acadian & Mi'kmaw village of Chebucto (Fr: Chebouctou). (Do not confuse with "Chedabucto" or "Chédabouctou", which is Guysborough NS.) Quickly became the naval centre of the region & remains the largest urban centre in Atlantic Canada.
Havre-à-Mélasse NS	Some Acadian refugees, after release from British imprisonment at the end of the Expulsion era, settled in the Chezzetcook area east of Halifax. Subsequently, some of those families relocated to Tor Bay, on the remote coast of Guysborough County, founding 3 fishing communities: Larry's River, Charlos Cove, and Havre-à-Mélasse, this last one being renamed Port Felix . (See Brad Pellerin, "The Chezzetcook Connection," on website of Barry Potter, accessed March 2017 at http://guyscogene.net/places/acadians.html .)
Havre-Aubert QC	Southernmost of the interconnected Magdalen Islands and the name of the village at the eastern end of the island. (See Magdalen Islands, below.)
Havre-aux-Maisons QC	One of the middle islands in the interconnected Magdalen Islands .
Havre-Boucher NS	A rural coastal village in the NE part of the NS mainland, in Antigonish County, 42 km east of Antigonish town, & very near the NW end of the Strait of Canso.
Havre-Saint-Pierre PE	English: St. Peters Harbour . Near the mouth of a bay on the northern coast near the eastern end of the Island, in present King's County. Pre-Expulsion, it was the largest settlement of the French Île Saint-Jean, & centre of the Island's fishery.
Île-de-Caraquet NB	See Caraquet.
Île Saint-Jean (PE)	French & Acadian settlers began arriving in 1720, in the present province of Prince Edward Island . As tensions grew in mainland Acadia in the final years before the Expulsion began in 1755, many Acadians flocked to the Island, but it fell to the British with the final capture of Louisbourg in 1758. That marked the beginning of the Acadian Expulsion from the Island, and a mass exodus of refugees to present-day New Brunswick & Québec. Then dubbed St. John's Island, it was part of the colony of Nova Scotia until 1769, & renamed Prince Edward Island in 1798.
Jolicoeur NB	Anglicized as Jolicure . See description for Aulac, above.
Kamouraska QC	A village on the south bank of the lower St. Lawrence River, 170 km downriver from the Québec City area.
L'Acadie QC	A small town about 8 km west of the Richelieu River, & about 50 km SE of Montréal, halfway to the USA border, now amalgamated with nearby Saint-Jean-sur-Richelieu. The community was founded by Acadians refugees from the Expulsion.
La Coupe NB	See Aulac , above. This small Acadian settlement, encircled by the La Coupe River and the Aulac River on the Isthmus of Chignecto, no longer contains homes.
La Rochelle (France)	A crucial Atlantic seaport of west-central France during its North American colonial era. A famous centre of French Protestantism in the 17 th century, especially among the merchant class, until its final suppression late in that century. It remained an important naval and marine commercial port until France suffered major military losses (including final defeat in present-day Canada) in the mid-18 th century.
Lavernière QC	Also spelled La Vernière. It is the present small town of L'Étang-du-Nord , on the Île-du-Cap-aux-Meules, Magdalen Islands . (See Îles-de-la-Madeleine, above.) The island is the site of the large church of Saint-Pierre-de-Lavernière.
Le Mirebalais (Haiti)	The town of Mirebalais lies in the interior, 55 km NE of Port-au-Prince. Haiti was the French colony of Saint-Domingue before Haitian independence, with a slavery-based plantation economy.

L'Isle-Verte QC	A village on the south bank of the lower St. Lawrence River, County of Rivière-du-Loup, 216 km from Québec City, 27 km downriver from Rivière-du-Loup & 72 upriver from Kamouraska.
L'Islet QC	A small city on the south side of the St. Lawrence river, about 3 km inland from the riverside settlement of L'Islet-sur-Mer, and about 87 downriver (NE) from Lévis (Québec City region).
Magdalen Islands QC	French: Îles-de-la-Madeleine . A group of small islands (the main islands are interconnected by dunes) in the Gulf of St. Lawrence, due north of the eastern tip of Prince Edward Island. Population largely descended from post-Expulsion Acadians, some of whom had previously settled on the French islands of St. Pierre & Miquelon.
Margaree NS	Formerly Magré in French. The Margaree River flows for 120 km through an agriculturally rich but narrow valley in Cape Breton, opening to the Gulf of St. Lawrence due east of Prince Edward Island. Post-Expulsion Acadians began settling on the coast near the mouth at the same time that they began populating Chéticamp and nearby Grand-Étang, in the 1780s.
Malpègue PE	The extinct pre-Expulsion village was on the western side of Malpeque Bay, around present-day Port Hill , across from the present-day Malpeque in Prince County. Sometimes written "Malpec".
Mascouche QC	Now a suburb of Montréal, 42 km north of the city's downtown centre.
Memramcook NB	A historical and present-day centre of Acadian culture, encompassing hamlets between the Memramcook River on the east & the Petitcodiac River on the west. It lies just NW of the Isthmus of Chignecto.
Menoudie NS	Also spelled Minoudie. English: Minudie . An extension of the pre-Expulsion Beaubassin settlement (& part of the old seigneurie). On a peninsula on the NW bank of the estuary where the Maccan River & River Hebert meet. Destroyed in 1750, it was resettled by Acadians returning in the 1760s from the Expulsion, although by then owned by wealthy British men. Also known (post-Expulsion) as Elysian Fields , along with the adjacent Franklin Manor (now Barronsfield ). Largely abandoned by Acadians in the first decade of the 1800s.
Meteghan NS	See Baie-Sainte-Marie.
Miquelon (France in North America)	The small islands of Saint-Pierre-&amp;Miquelon , near the south coast of Newfoundland, were an Expulsion-era haven for Acadians. Although the place was recurrently attacked & occupied by the British, & expulsion recurred, it remains territory of France.
Miramichi NB	The colonial name is still used. The Miramichi is a major river, forming a large bay before emptying into the Gulf of St. Lawrence on the east coast of the province. The present amalgamated city of Miramichi, at the head of the bay, includes the former towns of Chatham & Newcastle.
Mirebalais	See Le Mirebalais above.
Miscouche PE	A village in Prince County, 10 km west of the town of Summerside, and just east of the predominantly Acadian area known as the Evangeline Region (see Baie-Egmont, above.) Present location of the Acadian Museum of PEI.
Môle-Saint-Nicolas (Haiti)	A port town at the NW tip of Haiti. A major landing-point for Acadians & other settlers from Europe at the time. High disease mortality & other problems drove many elsewhere (including Louisiana), but significant numbers settled & remained. Haiti was the French colony of Saint-Domingue before Haitian independence, with a slavery-based plantation economy.
Nantes (France)	In the SE corner of Brittany . A key port city, near the Atlantic mouth of the Loire River. A decade-long gathering-place of Acadian exiles before the great emigration to Louisiana in 1785.
Néguaac NB	An almost entirely francophone village in Northumberland County, on the north shore of Miramichi Bay, 44 km from the city centre of Miramichi. First Acadian settlers arrived as refugees in 1757, during the Expulsion era.

New Orleans LA	Needs no explanation.
New Richmond QC	See Bonaventure, above. A small town on the north shore of the Bay of Chaleurs, adjacent to Cascapédia, within the Bonaventure regional municipal county, & about 32 km west of the town of Bonaventure.
Nicolet QC	A small town that was a notable centre of Acadian refugee settlement in the wake of the Expulsion. Located across the river from the city of Trois-Rivières, on the south bank, and bordering on the upriver side of Saint-Grégoire-de-Nicolet (see below).
Nipisiguit NB	Various spellings. English: Nepisiguit . It is the present town of Bathurst NB at the mouth of the Nepisiguit River, on the south side of the Bay of Chaleurs.
Opelousas LA	In the 1760s, it was a district of the Louisiana colony. The small city of Opelousas – less than 40 km north of Lafayette – dates from 1720, and its parish of St. Landry from 1767. The district became a major locus of Acadian (as well as Creole) settlement.
Paspébiac QC	See Bonaventure, above. A small town just over 20 km east of Bonaventure town. An important cod-fishing station in the 18 th -century. After the British conquest it became (like Chéticamp NS) a commercial centre for the francophone Protestant Robin company of the Jersey Islands.
Petcodiac NB	English: Petitcodiac . The present-day village of this name (40 km upriver from Moncton) is only the most recent of several hamlets to have used this name, along the Petitcodiac River, both above and below Moncton.
Petit-Bonaventure QC	Renamed Saint-Simon (or Saint-Simon-de-Bonaventure) when separated from Bonaventure in 1914. Just west of the latter, on the north shore of the Bay of Chaleurs.
Petit-Degrât NS	Now usually written as Petit de Grat . A present-day Acadian village at the SE edge of Isle-Madame, in Richmond County, Cape Breton.
Petit-Rocher NB	Village on the south coast of the Baie des Chaleurs, 20 km north of Bathurst (see “Nipisiguit” above).
Pisiquid NS	Often spelled Pigiguit or Pisiguit (etc.) . A collection of pre-Expulsion Acadian riverside hamlets in the area around present-day Windsor . The English changed the name of the Pisiquid River to the Avon. It also encompassed settlements on the Ste Croix, Kennetcook, & Cogmagun rivers, and contained two parishes.
Plattenville LA	An unincorporated village on Bayou Lafourche, in Assumption Parish, about 15 km west of the Mississippi
Pointe-Coupée LA	A parish (county) between the Atchafalaya & Mississippi rivers, just NW of Baton Rouge. Bounded on the south by Iberville Parish & on the west by St. Landry Parish (containing Opelousas).
Pointe-de-l'Église NS	English: Church Point . Includes the present francophone Université-Sainte-Anne. See Baie-Sainte-Marie.
Pointe-de-Est	The northeastern end of the main group of interconnected islands in the Magdalens . (See Magdalen Islands, above.)
Pokemouche NB	The Pokemouche River flows eastward for 20 km through the “Acadian Peninsula” in the province’s northeast, reaching the Gulf of St. Lawrence at Inkerman. The present village of Pokemouche sits where the South Pokemouche River meets the main river, more than 8 km from the Gulf. Caraquet is 17 km to the north, Shippagan 18 km NE, & Tracadie NB 20 km south.
Pont-à-Buot NB	Also spelled Pont-à-Buhot. Anglicized to Point de Bute . On Isthmus of Chignecto. Site of a pre-Expulsion bridge across the Missiguash River. On Rte. 16 (Trans-Canada H’way to PE Island) about 4 km from its intersection with the TCH Rte. 2. (See also Aulac, above.)
Port-au-Prince (Haiti)	A port city in the SW of Haiti, & the nation’s capital. Haiti was the French colony of Saint-Domingue before Haitian independence, with a slavery-based plantation economy.

Port-Lajoie PE	The old French capital of the island (then Île Saint-Jean). British renamed it Fort Amherst in 1758. At Rocky Point , on the west side of the entrance to Charlottetown Harbour.
Port-Louis (France)	A port town in France, with a fortress guarding the river mouth, on the south coast of Brittany (present Département of Morbihan).
Port Royal NS	Annapolis Royal since 1710, when Port Royal last fell to the British, and the French fort was redubbed Fort Anne. Before the Expulsion, Acadian settlements extended far up the Annapolis River, then called Rivière Dauphin. It was the oldest major Acadian settlement, and springboard for the expansion into other areas of the colony.
Port-Toulouse NS	In the area of present-day St. Peter's village, Richmond County, at the portage from the Bras d'Or Lakes to the Atlantic Ocean in southern Cape Breton (which was Île-Royale in the era of Fortress Louisbourg). Earlier French colonial name, Saint-Pierre.
Pré-d'en-Haut NB	A rural hamlet in the centre of Memramcook (see above).
Pré-des-Bourg NB	A settlement that Acadians began in the very early 1700s, on a loop of the Tantramar River. The site lay in the southern and eastern part of the present town of Sackville , & just north of Westcock (Vechcaque).
Remsheg NS	Now called Wallace . On the Northumberland Strait opposite Prince Edward Island (Île-Saint-Jean), both Remsheg & its neighbour Tatamagouche were important to Acadians and to the French colonialists, especially in the 1750s, as points of departure for marine traffic to French-held Île-Saint-Jean and Cape Breton Island from the British-held mainland of Nova Scotia. Boats carried Acadian-produced supplies to Louisbourg, pre-Expulsion Acadian migrants to both islands, and Acadian refugees in the Expulsion era. For this reason, Remsheg & Tatamagouche were among the first Acadian settlements that the British torched at the start of the Expulsion.
Restigouche NB	French: Ristigouche . The Restigouche River empties into the Bay of Chaleurs, of which the north shore is QC and the south shore is NB. The present town of Campbellton is at the head of the estuary, with Pointe-à-la-Croix on the QC side of the river. It was the furthestmost site in present-day NB that Acadians occupied en masse as refugees in the Expulsion era. It was also the site of the last battle that the British fought against the Acadian militia & their aboriginal allies alongside a small French naval force, in the early summer of 1760, with no decisive victor at the time.
Richibucto NB	French: Richibouctou . A small town at a river mouth on the central east coast of the province, in Kent County, 82 km north of Moncton & Dieppe.
Richibucto-Village NB	A settlement 16 km east of the town of Richibucto (see above), in Kent County.
Rivière-aux-Canards NS	Now Canard River . A pre-Expulsion Acadian settlement just NW of Grand-Pré, across the Cornwallis River estuary.
Rochefort (France)	A town on the estuary of the Charente River, 34 km down the coast from La Rochelle. Founded in the 1660s by the French Catholic state as a showpiece naval centre, beyond control of that heavily Protestant city.
Rustico PE	A group of villages on the north shore of PE, founded post-Expulsion, in Queen's County. Acadians are concentrated in the Parish of Saint-Augustin, centered in what is now called South Rustico.
Saint-Anselme NB	A former village within the boundaries of the city of Dieppe (see above).
Saint-Basile NB	Now absorbed into the city of Edmundston , in the Madawaska region of the province's northwest, near the border of Maine. First Acadians arrived around the latter 1780s.
Saint-Charles-de-Kent NB	A rural parish of Kent County, comprising several hamlets along the Saint-Charles River, about 5 km NW of Richibucto & roughly 6 km SE of Saint-Louis-de-Kent (see below).

Saint-Charles-de-Bellechasse QC	A village on the south side of the St. Lawrence, about 30 km east of Lévis (greater Québec City region), and about 11 km inland from the river.
Saint-Charles-sur-Richelieu QC	A village on the Richelieu River, about 50 km NE of Montréal, and about 42 km up from the mouth of the Richelieu at Sorel.
Saint-François-du-Lac QC	A rural settlement on the Rivière-Saint-François, a south-bank tributary of the upper St. Lawrence River, about 50 km upriver from Trois-Rivières & 100 km downriver from Montréal.
Saint-François-du-Sud QC	Full name: Saint-François-de-la-Rivière-du-Sud. The Rivière du Sud flows parallel to the south shore of the St. Lawrence, 4 or more km inland, meeting the main river at Montmagny. The village is about 17 km up the Sud from Montmagny, & due east of the Île-d'Orléans. It is 70 km by road from Québec City.
Saint-Gabriel d'Iberville LA	The present Iberville Parish (county) lies between the Atchafalaya River & the Mississippi, just west & south of Baton Rouge. St. Martin parish is on its west boundary & Ascension Parish on the east. The town of St. Gabriel is in the SE of the parish, on the east bank of the Mississippi.
Saint-Grégoire-de-Nicolet QC	A small town that is now part of the amalgamated town of Bécancour (see above). It borders on the downriver side of Nicolet (also see above), and lies directly across the St. Lawrence from the city of Trois-Rivières, on the south shore. The town still marks its heritage of Acadian refugee settlement.
Saint-Jacques-de-Cabahannocer (abbrev. "Cab.") LA	Now known as St. James Parish ; on the Mississippi. The centre of the parish (county) is about 90 km upriver from downtown New Orleans. The French/English rendition of the aboriginal Choctaw name of Cabahannocer has several spellings (e.g., Cabanocey, Cabannocer, Cabannocé), which was originally the name of the indigo plantation of the Cantrelle family. A major area of settlement for 18 th -century Acadian exiles, & dubbed "The Acadian Coast". (See also Ascension, above.)
Saint-Jacques-de-l'Achigan QC	A small town 65 km north of the historical centre of Montréal. Founded by Acadian exiles, including some returning from Massachusetts.
Saint-Jean-Port-Joli QC	A village on the south shore of the St. Lawrence river, about 100 km downriver from Lévis (Québec City area) and 54 km upriver from Kamouraska.
Saint-Joachim QC	A very small town on the north shore of the St. Lawrence, 5 km downriver from Beauré & 43 km from Québec City.
Saint-Louis-de-Kent NB	A rural parish of Kent County, comprising several hamlets along the Saint-Charles River, about 5 km NW of Richibucto.
Saint-Luc QC	A small town about 36 km SE of Montréal, at the NW edge of the urban centre of Saint-Jean-sur-Richelieu, & about 4 km from the west bank of the Richelieu River.
Saint-Martinville LA	See Attakapas, above.
Saint-Michel de Cantrelle LA	The present town of Convent , capital of St. James Parish (county). The original church of St-Michel-de-Cantrelle was built in 1809 and named for its financial patron – see Saint-Jacques de Cabahannocer, above.
Saint-Ours QC	A small town about 75 km by road NE of Montréal, on the south side of the St. Lawrence, on the east bank of the Richelieu River, 20 km upriver from the mouth of the Richelieu at Sorel.
Saint-Pierre-les-Becquets	A village on the south bank of the St. Lawrence, about 20 km downriver (NE) from Bécancour (see Bécancour, above).

Saint-Vincent de Paul QC	Now part of the city of Laval , in the eastern section of that island, within greater Montréal.
Sainte-Anne-du-Ruisseau NS	A village 20 km east of the town of Yarmouth, at the SW end of the province.
Sainte-Thérèse-de-Blainville QC	A regional municipal county just 25 km NW of Montréal, or 35 km from the historical centre.
Scoudouc NB	A small rural village about 21 km NE of Moncton-Dieppe.
Shédiac NB	A town on the Northumberland Strait (opposite Prince Edward Island), 27 km NE of Moncton-Dieppe.
Shippagan NB	Almost exclusively francophone, the town lies near the outer point of the Acadian Peninsula in the NE of the province. It occupies a peninsula, from which one crosses to Lamèque & Miscou Islands.
Sorel QC	A small city on the south bank of the St. Lawrence at the mouth of the Richelieu River, about 80 km downriver from the historic centre of Montréal.
South Carolina (USA)	Second-most southerly of the 13 Colonies (present USA). A long-established colony by the time of the Acadian Expulsion, with a highly developed plantation economy dependent especially on African slaves.
Thibodaux LA	A town on the banks of Bayou Lafourche, seat of Lafourche Parish (county), in the southeastern part of the state.
Tintamarre NB	Anglicized as Tantramar . The pre-Expulsion Acadian settlement, on the west side of the river of that name, is now Middle Sackville (not to be confused with the place in NS), about 3 km north of Sackville town & extending to Upper Sackville (old Haut-Tintamarre ).
Tignish PE	The village centre of a rural Acadian-Irish area at the extreme northwestern end of the Island.
Tracadie NB	A predominantly Acadian town on the SE shore of the Acadian Peninsula in Gloucester County, in the NE of New Brunswick. It is about 33 km north of Miramichi Bay (specifically, from Néguaac), 39 km south of Caraquet, & 36 km from Shippagan.
Tracadie NS	A rural coastal village in Antigonish County, 30 km east of Antigonish town., in the NE part of mainland Nova Scotia.
Tracadie QC	Now called Carleton (Carleton-sur-Mer). On the north side of the Bay de Chaleurs, west of Bonaventure (see above), near the head of the bay & 56 km from the town of Campbellton NB.
Westcock NB	Listed here by its present anglicized name, to avoid confusion between two sites with similar historical French names, each of which had several variations in spelling. (1) Westcock is a rural village immediately south of Sackville NB, toward the western side of the old Beaubassin settlements of the Chignecto isthmus. Among the older spellings, we find “Vechcaque” & “Ouescaque.” It is a segment of rich marshland at the mouth of the Tantramar River, and is still under dyked cultivation in 2017. Acadians began settling there in the first decade of the 1700s.

(2) The second site is now called Amherst Point, a rural area at the southeastern edge of the old Beaubassin settlements of the isthmus. It occupies the north side of the Maccan river, not far southwest of the present town of Amherst, and immediately south of the rural area of West Amherst. Amherst Point area historically was known as “Ouescoque” (likewise variously spelled). Adding to the confusion between the two sites is the fact that this second locale is where Michel Haché dit Gallant (the first) & Anne Cormier set up farming before moving to today’s Prince Edward Island, and yet, this couple’s son Michel Haché dit Gallant the 2nd moved to Westcock. Note that our list of households includes Michel Haché the 3rd & Jean Haché as having lived at Westcock. They are sons of Michel the 2nd (or, in White’s enumeration system, they are Michel.9 & Jean.10, sons of Michel.2). Another similar case is that of Claude Gaudet, in the second section of the list of households (those “whose presence at Camp Espérance is uncertain but likely”) who lived most of his adult life at West Amherst, near Ouescoque (Amherst Point), but had to join his relatives in Westcock at the beginning of the 1750s, when powers on the French sides burned the Beaubassin settlements on the Nova Scotia (British) side of the Mésagouèche in order to force Acadians into French-controlled territory. (See the 2005 & 2015 volumes of Paul Surette’s Atlas of the Acadian Settlement of the Beaubassin 1660 to 1755, Sackville NB, Tantramar Heritage Trust.)
