

Deal, August 29. Came down the Mercury, Har-grave for Philadelphia.

London, August 30. On Tuesday his Excellency Count Rothenburg arrived in Town from Holland, as Ambassador from the Emperor, and the young Prince Lobkowitz along with his Excellency.

It is reported that his Royal Highness the Duke is to command a separate Army of Austrians, Bavarians, Dutch and English, now drawing together on the side of Maestricht, both by Land and sea; and 'tis presumed will be embated to the Amount of 25000 Men about the Middle of September.

It is likewise said, that there is a Plan formed for both the Armies under the King of Sardinia and Prince Charles wintering in the Territories of France.

The King of Prussia's Minister at the Hague has declared to the States, that his Majesty has no Intention of deviating in the least from the Treaty of Dresden.

Last Night a Mail arrived at the General Post-Office, brought by the Hanover Packet Boat in twenty Days from Lisbon, by which there is Advice, that the Penan-boco Fleet arrived safe the 20th of July.

It is said that Admiral Antoin, in his Majesty's Ship the Yarmouth, with the Captain, Kent, Portland, Faulkland and Amazon Men of War, and the Aetna Fire-ship, that sailed from Portsmouth on Wednesday last, are gone to make some Diversion on the French Coast.

The Store-ships from England which Commodore Barnet to impatiently expected in India, are safe arrived; and the Commodore thereupon was fitting out with all Expedition to intercept the three French China Men from Canton in the Streets of Malacca.

The said Commodore has taken or destroyed most of the Country trading ships, and rain'd a French settlement on the Coast of Malabar.

Some Vessels he took in their Voyage from Balfora, in the Gulph of Persia, prove very rich, altho' they had parted with a great deal of their Treasure before he came up with them.

September 4. Private Letters by Yesterday's Dutch Mails assure us, that the Allied Army, which was encamp'd behind Namur, finding the French Army press'd hard to attack them, had resolv'd to retreat; accordingly, having left a large Garrison in Namur, they march'd away, and passing wide of Huy and Liege, were on the Road to Maestricht when these Letters (dated September 5, N. S. at Night) left them; which being immediately observ'd by the French, they directly invest'd Na-mur with a large Body of Forces, and instantly march'd with the Remainder of their Army after the Allies; and as the French seem'd to push on at a great Rate, 'twas judg'd they must reach Tongres before the Allied Army could possibly get to Maestricht, by which means the Communication between them and Holland would still remain cut off.

The same Letters likewise assure us, that the meeting of the Ministers at Broda was again put off for some Days longer.

BOSTON, October 22.

Friday last a Vessel arriv'd here in 4 Days from Annapolis Royal, by which we have the following Intelligence in a Letter from a Gentleman there, dated October 19-1746. "This just serves to requaint you, that the Canadians continue still about the Fort, tho' they make no Attempt, or scarce shew themselves till provoked to it by us. Two Days ago we narrowly miss'd surprizing an advanced Guard of theirs of about 20 or 30 Men; I Party of ours of about 150 being within that of them before they were alarm'd. The same Day we brought off about 16 Head of Cattle before their Faces. At present the besieged are oblig'd to hunt for the Besiegers, but we are not without some Expectation of the Breach, in case unless Mr. Lefcock should meet them, which in my Opinion would prove a mortal Blow to France; but the very great Mortality amongst their Soldiers, &c. the Increase of the season for opening Trenches (without which with all their Force they cannot succeed) the good spirits of our Garrison, and the tolerable good Condition of our Fort, gives hopes that the Besiegers may once again miss their Aim."

We have Advice from the Westward, That on the 12th Instant, a Party of Soldiers that went out from Saratoga as a Guard to some waggons, were fired upon by a Body of Indians, supposed to be 150; and 7 of the Men were killed and left dead upon the spot, six of them scalped, and seven more are missing.

Thursday last a Schooner arriv'd here from Jebucla, with about 45 English seamen, and others, who had been taken by the French Squadron under the Command of the Duke d'Anville. The said Schooner was sent by Aigulal Toward with a Flag of Truce from Loui-sbourg to the Harbour of Jebucla, with a Number of French Prisoners to exchange for a like Number of our Countrymen, and was bound to Louisbourg again, but the Wind not favouring them, they stood away for this Port. The best Account we can get of the French Fleet, is from two Gentlemen who came in the said Schooner, and is as follows.

---We were Passengers on board the frigate Erecligh, bound from South-Carolina to Bristol, and on the 26th of August last fell in with a French Fleet of 57 sail of Vessels, under the Command of the Duke d'Anville, and were taken by them. Sept. 15, part of the Fleet entred Jebucla Harbour, where they found 13 more of the Fleet that had been separated from them in a storm; six of the Fleet, 4 of which were capital ships, were never heard of since the storm, when they were seen in great Distress. Sept. 17, the Duke d'Anville was interred on a small Island at the Entrance of the Harbour, the Harbour, not without being suspected of having poisoned himself. Sept. 18, a Council of War was held, when Monsieur Estienneau who succeeded Duke d'Anville, propos'd going back to France with the whole Squadron, as the Soldiers and Sailors were very sickly; and died last, and the season far advanced; but the other Officers thinking their Honour concern'd, insisted upon making an Attack upon the English, which greatly piqued the Commandant, and the next Morning he was found in his Apartment fallen upon his sword, and the Intendants have great Reason to believe he died about 24 Hours afterwards. Oct. 3, four Vessels with stores sail'd for Quebec, under Convey of the Rannonce. 11th in the Night, upon a Flag of Truce's arriving from Louisbourg, all the Troops, Tents, &c. were embarked.

12th, burnt the Purfait of 50 Guns, and several Prize Vessels. 13th, sail'd from Jebucla with the whole Squadron, consisting of 50 ships, 2 snaws, 2 Brigantines, 1 Deger, 4 Schooners, and 3 Sloops, and 'twas said they had on board 1000 Men from Menis, who were to serve as Pilots from Annapolis Royal.

October 14. Five or six Vessels parted from the Fleet, being bound to France, with a great Number of sick People on board. There are 5 Hospital ships still in the Fleet, and great Numbers of Sick in all the Vessels, and the Distemper still increasing. From the 20th of June N. S. to the Day they left Jebucla, they buried between 12th and 24000 Men, of which above 11000 died at Jebucla, and they have not now above 1000 Soldiers, including officers, capable of bearing Arms. There are now no more than 7 Line of Battle ships with the Squadron, the rest being Frigates and Transports, and very poorly mann'd.

'Tis said the French took on or near the Banks of Newfoundland and Coast of Acadia, 13 Vessels; that they used the Prisoners well, and were very inquisitive after the Men of War at Louisbourg, of whom they seem'd to be much afraid. 'Tis the general Opinion of those that return'd from Jebucla, that the French Fleet is gone directly for France, notwithstanding they gave out they were going to Annapolis Royal.

Extra's of a Letter from Lisbon, September 23, 1746.

---An Express arriv'd last Night, with the News that Genoa, and its Territories are surrendered to General Bown, who command'd the Austrian Army of 30,000 Men: They have agreed to pay 30,000,000 Li-res, or one Million of Mosdores, to prevent the City's being rais'd. This News may be depended on.

N. B. P. O. R. K.

We learn from Albany, that as the Forces were marching from thence on their Way to the Carrying-place, about 75 Miles from that City, one Delamont, a Waggoner, lagging a little behind the others, was set upon, shot and scalp'd by the Indians, before any Person knew any thing of the Matter, who thereupon immediately made off undiscov'erd.

Last Week came in here an English Prize sloop retaken by the Calico and Polux Privateers of this Port, the 16th of September last, off Cape Francois, from the famous Spanish Don Pedro de Aracochia, who had taken her the 25th of August off Bermuda, to which Place she belong'd and bound to from St. Kitts, Joseph Dickinson, Master --- There were 9 Spaniards and two Englishmen on board when they recov'erd her, and was bound for Havannah: she is laden with sail, Rum and sugar; They parted from the Calico and Polux, the 19th of September, all well on board.
